

Online Learning Readiness Checklist

Online learners often enjoy the flexible schedule, but with it comes responsibility!

- I understand that once I start a class that I am committing to finish it. To drop an online course within the designated drop period, I will contact my counselor.
- I have reliable Internet access.
- I have basic technology skills such as using a word processor, email, and Internet use.
- I want to take an online course.
- I have a history of completing schoolwork and homework without being told twice.
- I know how to manage my time.
- I turn in assignments on time.
- I ask teachers for help when I need it.
- I can stay on task while doing work on the Internet.
- I follow through on requests from teachers.
- I check my email often and respond to email in a timely manner.
- I have time outside of the school day to devote to an additional class.
- I keep up with dates on my calendar so that school responsibilities are met.
- I can arrange transportation to take my exams on campus before or after school.

If you answered "Yes" on 10-14 statements - you are ready for online learning!

If you answered "Yes" on less than 10 statements, seek the advice of your school counselor before proceeding with registration.
