Counselor's Corner...

Hello Birmingham Bears!!

A big "Thank You!" goes out to all the staff, parents, and students who adopted an angel for the Wylie Way Christmas. Your caring and giving show the Wylie Way!!

The holidays are a joyous season. It is a time when families share treasured traditions, customs and beliefs with relatives and friends far and near. But quite often, our efforts to create the "perfect holiday" for our families results in undue stress on parents and children alike. In the process, we tend to lose sight of what is truly important.

As we enter into the holiday season, reflect on those things which mean the most to your family. Sit down as a family and rank in order those traditions and rituals which are most important and then focus on those this holiday season.

Campus Happenings...

BNN is brought to us this week by the following crew members:

Alex Villanueva	Emma Adams
Jocelyn Hill	Tiffani Garvin
Trystan Garcia	Zachary Betts
Marcelino Bolis

This week's Animoto presentation is by DJ Franklin.

From the Library...

I've had several friends come in to the library and make some beautiful snowflakes to hang on our windows – and it looks WONDERFUL! I'd love to have some more – and while you're here...how about checking out a book about winter fun?!

And don't forget to take a look at the great books that your friends have recommended. You can find them on the window by the door. To those who have filled out cards - thanks for sharing your favorite stories with us!

Even though the Santa Shop will be in the library next week, it will still be open so you can find the perfect books to take home and read during the break! See you soon!

Happy Reading! Mrs. West

For your child's backpack, you never know when they may need them – a fall in the mud, chocolate milk spill, tear in the pants, potty accident.

For students who need them, we keep extra clothes in the clinic. My stock of boys and girls pants and underwear are getting slim, sizes 4t and up are needed. If you have extra pants that your child has outgrown, please consider bringing it in. Anything that is not needed will be donated.

Thank you for your help.
